CALLING ALL CREATIVES FOR MAKER WEEK AT THE CARNEGIE-STOUT PUBLIC LIBRARY

(Dubuque, Iowa) March 1, 2019— The Carnegie-Stout Public Library invites the community to get creative in its Maker Space for “Maker Week” from Saturday, March 9, to Sunday, March 17.

The Library Maker Space is the place to create, from making music and videos, to 3D printing and crafting. The Maker Space provides the equipment you need to bring your creation to life—digital cameras, 3D printing machines, jewelry design tools, sewing machines, MacBook Pro computers, creative software, embroidery machines, die-cut/emboss machines, and more—for free!

Projects or art made during Maker Week will be considered for the April Art @ Your Library® showcase. The deadline for submissions is March 28. The Library Art Subcommittee will judge entries and select which works will be part of the Art @ Your Library® showcase opening on April 5.

For more information about Maker Week or the Maker Space, please visit www.dubuque.lib.ia.us or call 563-589-4225.

The mission of the Carnegie-Stout Public Library is to improve the quality of life by providing resources for individual enjoyment, enlightenment, and knowledge and that enhance the literacy of youth. Learn more at www.dubuque.lib.ia.us.
